

The theme, "Our Faith Journey Together," is about exploring how our faith has impacted where we've been, where we're going and the value of supporting each other along our journeys. Four women among us have agreed to share their faith journeys and remind us that we're in this together.

What to Expect: Sign-in at Camp Huston is between 4:30pm - 6:30pm Friday evening, with the official welcome at 6:30p.m. After check-in, enjoy snacks and socializing by the fire before dinner at 7pm. Saturday includes three scrumptious meals; hearing wisdom from our speakers; getting to know each other in small group discussion; time for playing, laughing and solitude; time to enjoy beautiful scenery and hiking trails; and a gentle stretching class. Sunday continues with two more fabulous meals, worship service and discussion conclusion. This wonderful time of connection, relaxation and renewal concludes at 12:30pm Sunday.

Driving directions: Driving time to Camp Huston is one hour from Holy Cross. You may drive your own car, arrange to carpool or travel in one of our church vans. Camp Huston, 14725 Ley Road, Gold Bar, WA 98251 is next to Wallace Falls State Park.

New to Camp Huston? It's in a beautiful setting, tucked in the woods above Gold Bar. Simple twin rooms with community bathrooms (including showers) are provided. Beds and a light bedspread are provided, but bring either a sleeping bag or bed linens and a pillow. The showers have soap but bring your own towel and other bathroom necessities. If you prefer, for $15, Camp Huston will provide a pillow, pillowcase, sheets, blanket, towel and facecloth. Coffee and tea are available all day from the kitchen, and meals are served family-style. Special dietary needs are willingly met.
